

Sinead Burgess

Biography (December 2007)

The 17 year old country/pop sensation was signed to ABC Music in late 2007 following a blistering performance in the Telstra Road To Tamworth finals and an invitation to perform at the label's inaugural 'ABC Superjam' industry party. She performed alongside the label's most prestigious artists including Lee Kernaghan, Steve Forde and Beccy Cole.

Sinead Burgess is a vocalist, guitarist, piano player and songwriter with unquestionable star quality. She is both a vibrant and sincere performer with a commanding presence both on and off stage.

Despite only just finishing school, she's already supported the likes of James Blundell and Graeme Connors and was a Tamworth Camerata Junior Country Music School Graduate in 2006. And it was only flooding in the Gympie region which stopped her from debuting on the main stage at the 2007 Gympie Music Muster.

Sinead Burgess has won a swag awards at prestigious local talent quests including the; Caboolture Country Urban Talent Quest 2005, Glasshouse Mountains Tavern Talent Quest 2006, Queensland Champion of Champions 2005, Pioneer Village Country Music Club Festival 2006 and Gympie Muster Maton Talent Search 2006 as well as being a Grand Finalist in the 2007 Telstra Road to Tamworth competition.

"When I saw Sinead perform at the Road To Tamworth finals a I knew she was an incredibly special performer and we are thrilled that she's now an ABC Music label artist," said Tim Holland – Manger, ABC Music Country Label.

Look out for a debut single from Sinead in mid-2008 and plenty more from her after that!
